Governor's rule imposed in J-K; Army chief says anti-terror ops will continue

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi/Srinagar, June 20

JAMMU AND KASHMIR was brought under governor's rule on Wednesday and the state Assembly put under suspended animation, a day after the PDP-BJP government collapsed with the BJP ending the three-year-old alliance with the regional party.

were discussed, Army chief Gen Bipin Rawat said the ongoing military operations in the Valley against terrorists would continue as earlier. Governor's rule in the state is unlikely to have any impact on ongoing military operations, he told reporters in New Delhi. It is for the fourth time that the sensitive border state was placed under Central rule in the last one decade -- all under the tenure of Vohra, who was made the governor in June 2008. This is the BJP state president Ravinder Raina (L) with former J&K Chief Minister Guptu during a press conference in Jammu. Separately, Union home minister Rajnath Singh said the Centre wants terrorism to end and peace to prevail in Kashmir. "Our only aim is that terrorism should end and peace should prevail in Kashmir and our government will work keeping this in mind," he told reporters in Lucknow. Singh was responding to a question about BJP's dramatic decision to pull out of the coalition with the Mehbooba Mufti-led PDP. Mehbooba submitted her resignation after the BJP withdrew support.

Vohra had last night recommended imposition of governor's rule in a report sent to the Rashtrapati Bhavan around the time when President Ram Nath Kovind, who is on an overseas trip, was onboard his special aircraft. The contents of the governor's report were immediately sent to Suriname where the president was scheduled to land at 6.30 pm (3 am IST). The president after perusing the report gave his assent and the same was sent to the Union home ministry by 6 am (IST) following which the process of promulgating Governor's rule was prepared and sent to Srinagar. "Immediately after receiving the President of India's approval, governor N N Vohra issued the proclamation to impose Governor's rule in the state under Section 92 of the Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir today," a Raj Bhavan spokesman said in Srinagar. After assuming charge as the head of the state administration, Vohra held meetings with top civil administration and police officials at the Civil Secretariat in Srinagar. The governor held discussions with chief secretary B B Vyas and identified the major tasks which shall require to be dealt with on a strict time-bound basis, beginning from Wednesday.

He was earlier accorded a ceremonial welcome and guard of honour by a police contingent as he arrived at the Civil Secretariat to take charge of the administration. Vohra chaired a meeting of top officials -- both from civil administration and police -- to gear up the state administrative machinery to function with speed, efficiency and accountability. The break-up of the PDP-BJP coalition triggered celebrations in parts of the Valley, even as some people expressed apprehension that governor's rule might lead to lack of transparency and worsen the situation in the state.

The names of advisers were cleared by the Union home ministry after the state was put under the Governor's rule today, following withdrawal of support by the BJP to the PDP's Mehbooba Mufti's three-year-old coalition government yesterday. The state Assembly has been put under suspended animation.

The 60-year-old Vyas, who is considered as a trusted lieutenant of the Governor, was last month given a one-year extension in service, beyond May 31, 2018, as the chief secretary of the state.

The personnel ministry has also amended the service rules to provide extension to Vyas beyond 60 years of age of superannuation. Till the new rule came into force, the state chief secretary retired on attaining the age of 60 years, who was due to superannuate in November last year, was given two extensions of three months each till May-end, to remain the chief secretary.
